

Supplementary File 16 How current practice was ranked across seizure scenarios in terms of preference

	Current Practice
The paramedic has access to medical records or a care plan They can read about what you require when you have a seizure.	✗ No
What happens next Where you go once the paramedic has assessed you.	 A&amp;E Department
Time How long it takes to be assessed, monitored and treated by emergency healthcare professionals today.	 3 hours
Epilepsy specialists today A health professional with specialist training in neurology is available to advise the emergency healthcare professionals treating you today.	✗ No
GP told Your GP will receive a written report from the ambulance service.	✓ Yes
Additional contact with an epilepsy specialist The emergency healthcare professionals treating you today arrange for you to have an appointment with an epilepsy specialist.	✗ No

Rank position of current practice by scenario	Rank (out of 288)
Significant others..... Home typical seizure	220
People with epilepsy..... Public typical seizure	230
Significant others..... Public typical seizure	239
People with epilepsy..... Home typical seizure	247
People with epilepsy..... Atypical seizure	248
Significant others ..... Atypical seizure	253