Questionnaires

CAPA questionnaire

Today's date:
Unique identifier:
Care home name:
Job role:
Question	Not at all confident	Somewhat confident	Moderately confident	Very confident	Completely confident
1. Identify the needs of people who have a life-
limiting illness
2. Identify the interventions
required by people who have a
life-limiting illness
3. Discuss end of life issues with people who have a
life- limiting illness
and their families
4. Implement the interventions
required for people who have a
life-limiting illness
5. Assess the ongoing needs of people who have a
life-limiting illness
6. Identify personal coping strategies to effectively manage personal issues associated with caring for people
who have a life-
limiting illness
7. Discuss the needs of people in my care who have a life-limiting illness with		1

palliative care specialists
8. Refer people with life-limiting illness to a palliative care specialist when needed 9. Apply principles of culturally- centred care when caring for people who have a life- limiting illness

QODDI Questionnaire

Question/Score	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
How often did the	-		_		-	-	-		-	- resident appear to have her/his pain
under control?
How often did the
resident appear to have control over what was going on around her/him?
How often did the resident have control of her/his bladder or bowels?
How often did the resident breathe
comfortably?
How often did the
resident appear to feel at peace with dying?

How often did the resident appear to be unafraid of dying?
How often did the resident laugh and smile?
How often did the
resident appear to be worried about strain on her/his loved
ones?
How often did the
resident appear to keep her/his dignity and self-respect?
How often did the
resident spend time with family and friends?

Question	NA	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Was the resident touched or hugged
by her/his loved
ones?
Were all of the resident's health care costs taken care of?
Did the resident say goodbye to loved
ones?
Did the resident have one or more visits from a religious or spiritual advisor?
Was a mechanical ventilator or kidney dialysis used to prolong the resident's life?
Did the resident have her/his funeral arrangements in order prior to death?

Family perceptions questionnaire: CANHELP Lite hilly perceptions questionnaire: CANHELP Lite Question			ц.	/ery satisfied	≥	Dont know/no basis to judge all	ed v	Somewhat satisfied	atisl	Completely satisfied	vor: o ju

	Not at all satisfied	Not very satisfied	Somewhi satisfied	ry s	Complet satisfied	nt k sis t
	No sat	No sat	So	Ve	Sat Sat	Do ba
1. The long term care staff looking after your relative are compassionate and supportive of him or her.
2. The long term care staff looking after your relative are compassionate and supportive of you.
3. The tests are done and the treatments are given for your relative's medical problems in the long term care home.
4. The physical symptoms (for example: pain, shortness of breath, nausea) your relative has are adequately assessed and controlled.
5. The emotional problems (for example: depression, anxiety) your relative has are adequately assessed and controlled.
6. Your relative receives help with personal care (for example: bathing, toileting, dressing, eating) when needed.
7. Your relative received good care when you were not able to be with him/he 8. The health care workers worked together as a team to look after your relative 9. You are able to manage the financial costs associated with your relative's long term care 10. The environment or the surroundings in which your relative received care is calm and restful.
11. The care and treatment your relative receives is consistent with his or her wishes.
12. The long term care staff explain things related to your relative's illness in a straightforward manner.
13. You receive consistent information about your relative's condition from all the long term care staff looking after him or her.
14. The long term care staff listen to what you say.
15. You discuss options with the nursing staff about whether your relative would be transferred to hospital or cared for in the long term care home if he or she were to get worse.
16. The long term care home doctor(s) takes a personal interest in your relative.
17. The long term care home doctor(s) are available when you or your relative needs them (by phone or in person).
18. You have trust and confidence in the doctor(s) who look after your relative.
19. You discuss options with the long term care Nurse about the use of life sustaining technologies (for example CPR or cardiopulmonary resuscitation, breathing machines, dialysis).

20. You discuss options with the nursing staff about initiating palliative care or comfort care measures of your relative.
21. Your role in decision-making regarding your relative's medical care in the long term care home.
22. The discussions options with the long term care Nurse about your relative's end of life care wishes.			