

Audit Standard

Clinical staff should prescribe tranexamic acid for surgical patients expected to have moderate or more significant blood loss unless contraindicated.