An evidence synthesis of the features that promote optimal health care delivery for older people living in care homes

	Data screening by:	ID/Record number:
Citation: Date:
State if article is related to another paper reporting same study
Journal, year of publication.
	Brief study overview
			_
	2. Problem/Focus e.g end of life car	re
	2. Complement the state of the		overions all staff and four
	3. Care home staff involvement - o	details eg. training, as cha	ampions, all stall or a lew
	4. Type and number of care homes/residents eg. nursing or residential
	5. Length of intervention (if applicable)

<ul> <li>6. Outcomes addressed (please give details) None addressed</li> <li>1. Unplanned hospital admissions including length of stay and A&amp;E admissions</li> </ul>
2. Out of hours service use
3. Resident, carer and care home staff satisfaction
4. Medication use
5. Costs
Are there any positive outcomes for care home residents? Yes   No
7. Theory area addressed:
Professional/relational
Governance
Age appropriate care
Unclear
8. Include Exclude Uncertain
Reason for inclusion/ exclusion/uncertainty:
If included, what is the explicit or implicit assumption of the approach?				